All undergraduate students are required to reside on campus. First-year undergraduate students will be accommodated in either the Conference Center (CC) or Student Residence Hall (SRH). Returning undergraduate students will be accommodated in hotels/apartments in the Kunshan community, which are leased and operated by the university. As such, they are considered "on campus" for residency requirements and university policy purposes.

Graduate students are not required to reside on campus but may be accommodated as space allows. Possible accommodations include CC, SRH and hotels/apartments in the Kunshan community, which are leased and operated by the university. As such, they are considered "on campus" for university policy purposes.
