Duke Kunshan University*

This interdisciplinary and multimedia event intends to become a signature program each Spring at DKU. Celebrating in a humanities fashion nature, health, society, culture, and arts, the DKU Film & Arts Festival will host filmmakers, scholars, scientists, and artists in a celebration and inquiry about the world we live in.

Duke Kunshan University

Inspired by the distinct mission and curricular pathways of DKU Water Towns EFAP span several traditional disciplines: the moving image, environmental policy and science, the arts, and humanities which are explored cross-culturally through documentary films and other multimedia production (visual arts, music and performance) in a global
