衷心感谢

With wide support from alumni, parents and many others, Duke Kunshan University has so far established more than 10 scholarship funds, covering all the current master's programs as well as the undergraduate program launched in fall 2018. These scholarships have provided critical support for more than 450 students, of which 60 are from the inaugural undergraduate class. The generosity will continue to inspire talented students from all over the world to join Duke Kunshan and grow into the next generation of future leaders and global citizens.
